Foreign Aid Measure Passes

Congress Approves $1.1 Billion Agency Bill, Adjoins

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first congressional session of the Kennedy administration wound up in an angry whirlwind early today with the Senate having to accept a big money bill which the House batted to it on a take it or leave it basis.

The House passed the $1,125,-$27,341 supplemental appropriation and then quickly closed up shop at 4:20 a.m. With the House in adjournment and no chance for compromise, the Senate was forced to go along with the bill providing money for a wide variety of federal agencies.

The slightest Senate amendment would have killed the measure and forced President Kennedy to call a special session to get the needed funds.

Senators minced no words in expressing anger at the House adjournment prior to final Senate action.

"We have taken a shellacking, and I think it's outrageous," protested Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield of Montana.

Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois challenged his colleagues to "show how deep is your conviction."

"Let's find out whether the House of Representatives can afford the Senate," Dirksen roared.

But after additional angry complaints, the Senate passed the measure on a voice vote and quit at 6:16 a.m.

The session which ended in the flare of tempers had run up appropriations totaling about $92.5 billion, a peacetime record.

In its home stretch session of about 19 hours, the heavily Democratic Congress also:

Voted $3,914,600,000 for foreign aid for the year which started July 1. The final figure was a qualified victory for President Kennedy, who originally asked for $4,775,500,000. Although Kennedy was denied the advance Treasury financing he sought, he won a five-year authorization for his economic development loan program—the longest ever voted.

Cleared a $3,908,880,980-public works appropriation for flood control, rivers and harbors, reclamation and atomic energy projects.

Sent to the White House a bill authorizing the Treasury to assign a number to each income taxpayer in a move to keep closer tab on tax returns.

Put aside until next year was a bill designed to ease the tax burden on Du Pont stockholders who might receive 63 million shares of General Motors stock under an antitrust divestiture proceeding.

Since convening last Jan. 3, Congress approved many major points of Kennedy's New Frontier program. It also rejected several of his major requests.

Democratic congressional leaders said they were well pleased with the record of the 1961 session and predicted that many Kennedy proposals which failed this year would be passed in 1962.

Republican leaders said they had kept their pledge to cooperate with the President on foreign affairs, and had remained true to their principles by seeking to cut or defeat many new domestic spending programs.

The session's spending was exceeded only by two World War II years and one Korean War year.

The $92.5 billion in appropriations for the fiscal year which began July 1 includes $8.6 billion interest on the national debt. Not included in the total is a fiscal 1961 supplemental appropriation.

The first session of the 87th Congress was the longest since the Korean War year of 1951, which ran to Oct. 20. Congress will reconvene Jan. 10 unless a crisis forces Kennedy to call it back sooner.

Congress quickly gave Kennedy the additional billions he asked for a defense buildup and to launch a big effort to get a manned space ship to the moon by 1970, plus authority to call up reservists and National Guardsmen.

At the same time key items in his domestic program bogged down. Democratic leaders blamed this in part on the sudden shift of attention to international troubles, particularly Berlin, and the belief of many members there must be some economy to offset increased defense spending.

Kennedy's major victories came relatively early in the session and involved measures which Democrats had tried unsuccessfully to get through in the Eisenhower years.

They included:

An increase in the minimum wage to $1.25 an hour by 1963, plus coverage under the Wages and Hours Act for an additional 3.5 million workers, mostly in the retail field.

A depressed areas bill carrying $394 million in federal loan and grant funds to try to help bring new jobs to communities with high, persistent unemployment.

A Social Security measure lowering the retirement age for men to 62, boosting the minimum monthly check from $33 to $40, and raising widow's benefits 10 per cent.

A $5.6-billion housing bill setting up a new program for middle income families including 40-year home mortgages, authorizing 100,000 additional low-rent public housing units, and carrying $2 billion for urban renewal grants and

Gromyko's Reply Boosts Hopes Over Berlin Threat

1 Person Reported Missing

Navy Tanker Blast Kills 1, Injures 21

MOREHEAD CITY, N.C. (AP)—A Coast Guard fireboat poured foam and water today onto the burning hulk of a Navy tanker that exploded as it discharged aviation fuel.

One person was killed as a series of explosions shook the tanker Potomac for more than half an hour after the first blast. At least 21 were injured and another was missing.

Jobless Fund Rate Increased

Employers To Pay Half Per Cent More

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An extra emergency rate—one-half of one per cent—will be assessed Ohio employers for 1962 due to a low balance in the state's unemployment compensation program, it was announced today.

It will be the first time in the history of the program that an emergency rate has been imposed.

Donald B. Leach, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, said the low balance is due primarily to heavy benefit payments in the recession of 1958 and 1960-61. Total payments amounted to nearly $275 million in 1958, and $301 million in the 12-month period ended June 30.

The additional rate is imposed under a provision of Ohio law as amended in 1953. That law stipulates the rate will become effective if, as of Aug. 31 of any year, the amount remaining in the unemployment compensation fund is less than total jobless benefits paid out during the 24 consecutive months preceding July 1 of that year.

The extra rate, to be applied next Jan. 1, will be added to the employers' normal rates for 1962. Leach said that at the beginning of September, the balance in the fund for benefits amounted to $178,632,798. Benefits paid during the 24 months preceding last July 1 amounted to $442,972,052.

Normal rates range from .1 to 2.7 per cent. They are paid on the annual wages of $3000 or less each year for each employee. The .5 increase will change the range from .6 to 3.2 per cent. Rates are computed each July 1 and established for the ensuing year on the basis of liable employers' unemployment experience. Employers, who have three or more employees are liable under the Unemployment Compensation Law.

Defendants Post Bonds In Numbers Case

LISBON—Four Pittsburgh men charged with printing numbers waging slips in violation of Ohio's new anti-gambling law posted $1,000 bonds in the common pleas court clerk's office here Tuesday.

The men, officers of the Lisbon Sales Book Co., did not appear for a scheduled arraignment Monday. They are Martin Sufrin, company president; Isadore Sufrin, vice president; Joseph Sufrin, secretary-treasurer; and Michael Schmidmeier, general manager.

A hearing is set for Thursday before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp on a petition by Columbian County Prosecutor G. William Brokaw to have the state attorney general's office prosecute the case.

Kennedy May Name McCone Chief of CIA

Prospect Formerly Was In Charge of Atomic Energy Unit

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—President Kennedy may name John A. McCone, former head of the Atomic Energy Commission, to replace Allen Dulles as director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

The President and Mrs. Kennedy arrived here Tuesday for a week of relaxation.

McCone, a Republican, was said to be in line for one of the hottest spots in the government, but one or two hitches had yet to be straightened out.

Kennedy, McCone Confer

Kennedy conferred with McCone at the White House several weeks ago. The CIA post may have been discussed at the time, but the announced purpose was the Soviet Union's decision to resume nuclear tests.

McCone, who headed the AEC for three years under former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, had contended previously the United States could not go on indefinitely observing the moratorium on atomic tests. Kennedy asked for a personal account of McCone's views.

A Marine officer said five were in good condition and may be released today. They are:

John C. Smith, 65, of Largo, Fla.; Eadis Page, 38, of Houston, Tex.; James H. Minter, 37, of Norfolk, Va.; Adelino Mattamala, 30, of Houston; and Henry Pickens, 32, of Greensboro, N.C.

The four injured more seriously were identified as William H. Massengill, 55; William G. Massengill, 19, and Wade H. Stanley, 51, all of Four Oaks, N.C.; and Henry Crawford of Boston, Mass.

One of the 13 local agencies which will benefit from the 1961 United Fund Drive which gets underway in Salem Oct. 3 is the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross, which joined the Salem United Fund Drive a year ago, will be allocated 25 per cent of the pledges. This would amount to $20,442 on the basis of their 1,250 hours of their time.

In home nursing, instructors gave approximately 100 hours of time conducting classes in care of the sick and injured. Fifty-five Volunteers in various services of the Red Cross contribute many hours of work each year toward betterment of the community.

These volunteers include nurses, aides, staff aides, motor corps, first aid instructors, water safety instructors, home nursing instructors, registered nurses, physicians and gray ladies.

Last year, certificates in first aid were issued to 314 persons.

Suggests U.N. Might Take Role In Crisis

Russian Rejects President's Bid for Nuclear Test Ban

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet reply to President Kennedy's U.N. address raised guarded hopes today that the Soviets may be ready to ease the threat of war over Berlin.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko turned down the President's bid for a nuclear test ban treaty, stuck to the Soviet line on general disarmament and insisted on a three-man board to replace the late Dag Hammarskjold as U.N. secretary-general.

Nevertheless there were cajoling sounds amid the threats in Gromyko's policy speech before the General Assembly Tuesday.

Gromyko stressed that the Soviet Union intends to sign a peace treaty with East Germany whether the West likes it or not. He declared that a war over the divided city could take hundreds of millions of lives.

Gromyko Warns West

The Soviet foreign minister also warned the West against "spouting threats" on Berlin and then repeated the Soviet proposition that West Berlin should be a "free city" with free access.

The joker in this proposal, from the Western viewpoint, is that the city's communications would have to be underwritten by what Gromyko described as "appropriate agreements" with Communist East Germany. The West does not recognize the East German regime and insists on its own rights in Berlin.

However, Gromyko suggested the United Nations might take a role in West Berlin to help avoid conflict. Delegates noted that in discussing possibilities for the future status of Berlin, Gromyko said the Russians would agree to "the use of troop contingents of neutral states or United Nations troops as guarantors of the status of the free city."

This created the impression that Gromyko was laying the groundwork for bringing the Berlin problem before the United Nations if negotiations with the West collapse.

Apparently the Russians feel they can marshal the votes among the nonaligned nations to support their position if the tension builds sufficiently.

4 Explosive Issues Face JFK In Next Congress Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy apparently is going to stake his political standing on four explosive issues in the next session of the Congress.

Kennedy has passed the word to party legislative leaders he is going to come back fighting in January for three proposals laid aside this year—a general aid-to-education bill, medical care for the aged and establishment of a Cabinet department of urban affairs.

His fourth major effort will be directed at a new extension of the reciprocal trade agreements act which expires next year.

The President has no illusions that putting across any such program is going to be easy. He was reported to be preparing for the toughest kind of battles. He was said to feel that he is going to have to win most of these conflicts to present a record to the voters that will avoid the traditional off-year election losses of House and Senate seats by the administration in power.

Democratic leaders are confident that, unless he is heavily involved in international developments, Kennedy will put in some personal campaigning for party members running next year.

The prospects of passing a general school aid bill at the next session are regarded as less than even. The issue of aid to parochial schools is one that many members would like to avoid in an election year.

Administration hopes for action on medical care for the elderly are much better. If the House clears a measure financing this program through Social Security taxes, the Senate is almost certain to go along.

The creation of a department of urban affairs involves the matter of Kennedy's obvious intention to name Robert C. Weaver, housing administrator and a Negro, to the Cabinet post if it is set up.

The reciprocal trade agreements extension cuts across political lines because of the economic threat of imports to industries in all sections of the country. The continuance of the program may well provide the biggest controversy of the next session.

HEART OF THE CITY — The bright stores of Western Berlin flank the wide main avenue, Kurfuerstendamm. At the far end of the busy street stand the ruins of the old Kaiser Wilhelm Memorial Church. Just to the rear is the modern Hotel Berlin Hilton. Reconstruction in West Berlin is virtually complete after war destruction.

Gov. DiSalle Could Be Wrong

That special session of the Ohio General Assembly last Friday turned out even more dismally than the gloomiest predictions.

Instead of accomplishing far too little, it far too much time, trouble and expense, it accomplished nothing at all. Gov. DiSalle could not muster votes in his own Democratic party, and the members of the Republican majority could see no reason to relax their opposition in the Senate bottleneck.

Consequently, all action on capital improvements now has been postponed until the next special session, scheduled for November, when it will be necessary for the representatives and senators to troop to Columbus again to deal with the consequences of the governor's unprecedented veto of the second half of the biennial budget.

Politically, the question in this General Assembly now has been defined so sharply by the standoff between the legislators and Gov. DiSalle that the outcome of the standoff will shape partisan politics for years to come.

GOV. DiSALLE has committed Ohio Democrats to an open-handed spending policy, backed up with substantial increases in state taxes to underwrite the cost of what he describes as imperative needs.

This is a reversal of the position held so long and successfully by the Lausche administration, when it represented the Ohio Democratic party. Gov. Frank J. Lausche was and continues to be a financial conservative. He takes the same position in the U.S. Senate that he formerly held in the Ohio governorship—that the highest function of political leadership is to sit on the spenders.

Ohio Republicans, on the other hand, now are committed more firmly than ever to a policy of financial prudence.

New Yorkers Have a 'New' Thrill

Spectators paying their way into the first six-day bicycle race in Madison Square Garden since 1939 aren't in a mood to philosophize about the revival of the spectacle. But the provocation is there if the action gets dull.

Six-day bicycle racing formerly was an international sport. It flourished in New York. Out-of-towners used to think of it as one of the memorable experiences that couldn't be duplicated anywhere else. Then it vanished.

Historically, it was given the coup de grace by the victory of a German team at the outset of World War II, when Germans were boxoffice poison in New York's entertainment industry. But in fact it had been languishing before 1939, so much so it has waited all this time to make a comeback.

Can This Happen Anywhere?

Hidden away among hair-raising news of threats to extinguish human decency and perhaps to blot out mankind itself was a human interest story that scared us more than the scare stories.

It said the city of Royal Oak, Mich., had been on the verge of a decision to make over its business district when it learned it had been misled by false evidence.

The evidence was parking meter revenue, which had been falling off faster than baseball attendance for an out-of-continent club in the closing week of a baseball season. The evidence pointed to something wrong with the business district.

Fortunately, someone looked into the evidence before acting on it, and what was found were three city employees suspected of having lifted as much as $25,000 from coin boxes on parking meters. Royal Oak has quit worrying about its business district. Its statistics were wrong.

But Royal Oak isn't the first community to jump to a conclusion on the basis of evidence that hadn't been checked out for reliability. All statistical evidence is tricky in this respect, because it so often runs contradictory to common sense yet is saved by an aura of logic.

Wouldn't it be a good idea in every community to create a Board of Skeptics to look into all studies, claims, surveys and reports before they are swallowed whole, frequently with the assistance of pressure blocs wanting the phony evidence to be choked down before someone asks, "What's the hurry?"

EX-PRESIDENT TRUMAN who will probably do a TV series got a preview on "Open End." He was candid, salty, likeable and perfectly at home, but not too impressive in off-the-cuff views on matters of great importance. It was sort of talk one hears around the iron stove, causing one listener to ask "What's Harry doing, trying to bring back the cracker barrel?"

But there is no telling how far Harry might go on TV. "From White House to TV Studio" is a journey full of possibilities. He could be the first ex-President to make the trip, perhaps attaining such popularity his program would include a banjo player, a quartet and a ballet and guest stars. People can never say to Harry, "So you won't TALK."

Rolling Up the Heavy Equipment

Inside Labor By Victor Riesel

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—From Jackass Flats, Nev., to the Moon and Mars is not as far as you think. These distances would have been closer if it hadn't been for a plumbers' strike earlier this summer, an Atomic Energy Commission expert said not so long ago.

Out on the Flats, some of our fantastic scientists are working on something called Kiwi-B reactor tests. They dubbed it Kiwi after the Australian bird which doesn't fly. At the Flats they're working on a nuclear rocket. They have run it through 2,000 degrees Fahrenheit during the Kiwi-A Prime and Pluto experiments.

Then, on June 30, the plumbers decided to strike the southern Nevada contractors. These included the men working on the nuclear propulsion experimentation.

Work stopped at the testing grounds. Despite pressure and pleading and despite the fact that the national construction unions in Washington had pledged President Kennedy and Labor Secretary Goldberg that it would not happen — they stayed out until July 10.

Now Kiwi-B is about to be tested to see if it could move a rocket to the Moon, around the Moon, back from the Moon, and speed another such inter-space ship to Mars.

CONSTRUCTION and testing in all these phases of something called Nerva and the Rover and Pluto projects will cost a total of $30 million.

We're rolling the dice for big stakes at the testing grounds some 90 miles from Las Vegas. How big a stake? — literally the sky's the limit.

I never did think I'd write a sentence which would say that we had a "chance" to beat the Russians in any arena. But realism is realism.

From no less an authority than Dr. Kraft A. Ehricke, director of the Centaur Division of Convair Astronautics, comes word that as said that the U.S. project to put a nuclear-powered rocket on the Russians in rocket development.

So what happens to Kiwi-B experiments at the Flats early next month could keep the Moon and a few planets from becoming the newest Soviet satellites.

All this has been planned jointly by the AEC and NASA. Then last June, the southern Nevada plumbers, some 500 of them, got into a hassle with the Nevada construction contractors.

LEGALLY it was the plumbers' right to strike. They had asked for a wage increase.

The contractors had offered them an $18-a-week raise over the next two years.

This was a base pay increase and would go up proportionately if the men worked more than 40 hours a week. They had been receiving $177-a-week straight time. The increase would have jacked it up to $188 for a 40-hour week.

Nonetheless they struck.

The records here reveal they wanted a nickel more an hour for vacation allotment. For this the nuclear ram-jet propulsion project went dead for a good part of July. Legally, this was the plumbers' privilege.

But there are other considerations. This was about the time the Russians were putting Major Titov through his final rehearsal for the flight of the Vostok II.

Those of us who awakened in Berlin a few weeks later to learn that a Soviet astronaut was circling the earth for the day did not feel so good. I wonder how the strikers felt.

(This strike was one of the most dramatic. But there have been a string of others since the pledge was made to the President, and they have cost the government tens of thousands of lost man hours.)

I wonder why the regional construction trades union leaders became so indignant when they are criticized by such men as Sen. McClellan.

Before I give you the details of the records in the federal offices here, let me report that on July 10 an AEC spokesman in Las Veg-

As for the suggestion of the Soviets that the office of secretary-general be a three-headed affair, with an official from each of the Communist, the Western and the Neutral blocs, like the "troika"—The Russian vehicle drawn by three horses abreast — Mr. Kennedy made this caustic comment:

"Even the three horses of the 'troika' did not have three drivers, all going in different directions.

They had only one — and so must the United Nations executive."

Most eloquent and emotional was the President's treatment of the whole armament question as he said:

A Great Speech

By DAVID LAWRENCE

JFK's Address Expresses U.S. Sentiments

Great speeches by spokesmen for modern governments are rare but when such an address is made, it is quickly recognizable as a work of art.

trust ...

"But we are well aware that all issues of principle are not settled — and that principles alone are not enough. It is therefore our intention to challenge the Soviet Union, not to an arms race, but to a peace race — to advance together step by step, stage by stage, until general and complete disarmament has been achieved."

THE PRESIDENT was not dismayed by the argument that a utopian condition cannot possibly be attained. He called for a program of "steady reduction in forces, both nuclear and conventional, until it has abolished all armies and all weapons except those needed for internal order and a new United Nations peace force."

Oratorical at times, epigrammatic in its phrasing, but comprehensive in its treatment of the issues of the day, the speech stated unequivocally American ideals and American purposes. While severely critical of the Soviet Union's policies, it was dignified in its restraint yet unmistakable in its meaning.

Perhaps the President was at his best when he lashed out at the hypocrisy of the Communists as they mischievously champion the cause against colonialism in other lands. He said on this point:

"There is no ignoring the fact that the tide of self-determination has not reached the Communist empire where a population far larger than that officially termed 'dependent' lives under governments installed by foreign troops instead of free institutions — under a system which knows only one party and one belief — which suppresses free debate and free elections and free books and free trade unions — and which builds a wall to keep truth a stranger and its own citizens prisoners. Let us debate colonialism in full — and apply the principle of free choice and the practice of free plebiscites in every corner of the globe."

LEST ANYONE think the glow of idealism in the speech might divert attention from the basic resoluteness of the United States and the West to defend their rights in Berlin, the President pointed out that "terror is not a new weapon" and has been tried before and failed "either because men are not afraid to die for a life worth living — or because the terrorists themselves came to realize that free man cannot be frightened by threats, and that aggression would meet its own response."

He concluded with this warning to Moscow:

"And it is in the light of that history that every nation today should know, be he friend or foe, that the United States has both the will and the weapons to join free men in standing up to their responsibilities."

As for the suggestion of the Soviets that the office of secretary-general be a three-headed affair, with an official from each of the Communist, the Western and the Neutral blocs, like the "troika"—The Russian vehicle drawn by three horses abreast — Mr. Kennedy made this caustic comment:

Whose Head?

By TRUMAN TWILL

The driver of the car ahead kept waving his right hand. "He's waving at us," said the lady I was driving to work.

"Who is it?" I asked.

"Haven't the slightest idea," she replied. "He is looking straight ahead."

"Whose head does it look like, though?" I suggested, noting that the head was unshaved. "Does it have a pinky on it?"

"It's real hairy," she said. "The hair is what I would describe as iron ray. The head is egg-shaped. It gives an appearance of good grooming. There is a pipe in its mouth, because I can see smoke and I get a glimpse of the bowl of the pipe."

"It could be Mitch," I offered, doubtful in my mind that Mitch would be on this street at this time. "Mitch has iron-gray hair."

"He smokes cigars," said the lady I was driving to work. "His head is square. He does not drive this kind of a car. Look, he's waving again. He's looking at us in his rear-vision mirror and waving."

"Wave back," I ordered. "We don't want to hurt the guy's feelings. But why doesn't he turn around so we can identify him? For all we know he could be fighting hornets. Could it be Roger?"

"With all that hair," said the lady, "he could be an English sheep dog. But it is definitely not Roger. Wrong head. Probably someone who knows you and here I am, trying to identify a total stranger."

"More likely someone who knows you," I commented dryly. "Or haven't you noticed I have the sun visor down. From where he is he couldn't possibly see my face. Which one of your pals do you figure it is?"

"Knock it off," she said. "It's probably someone who has mistaken both of us for someone else."

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I've been reading your column ever since it started, which must be at least five years now. You have a terrific sense of humor and I think it's a shame that you waste your time and talents on squirrelly teenagers and nutty housewives who are sunk anyway.

With my personality and your brains the two of us could be a winning combination. I have some tremendous ideas which would put both of us right in the big time. Are you interested? —MR. SUCCESS.

Dear Mr. Success: I don't think you need me. Judging by your signature you've already got it made. If you don't mind, I'll just stumble along alone and do as good a job as I can without you.

Draped Draper

Dear Ann: Clyde and I have a profitable drapery business which we've worked hard to build up. His brother usually does the final delivery and hangs the draperies.

Yesterday Clyde said he wanted to hang the draperies "personalized" for some lady who is very social because it would be good for business.

He was gone four hours and I began to worry. He finally showed up at home—half crooked. I asked

Dear Wife: Personal attention is good for business but when it gets TOO personal it can be bad for business, and also bad for the businessman.

Tell Clyde to let his brother do all the drapery hanging from now on and to stay out of the truck. He has no right to risk years of hard work by mixing alcohol and gasoline.

Post-Vacation Blues

Dear Ann: Since returning from a month's vacation I've been depressed. Does everyone get post-vacation blues or does coming back to this miserable town have something to do with it? Perhaps the real reason for this depression is I just celebrated (?) my 33rd birthday.

From the tone of your letter you have little to lose. Your passport doesn't even have to be renewed.

Dear D.C.: You're not cracked. You're bored. A vacation spot is always more glamorous than the working terrain but since you seem to have fallen in love with Europe I suggest you transfer for a year and see if the

Winter-Herald Vows Heard In First Christian Church

The sanctuary of the First Christian Church was the setting for the Sept. 16 wedding of Miss Linda Lee Winter, daughter of Mrs. Emogene Winter of Akron, and William Winter of Ash St., and William Dennis Herold, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Herold of MC 1, Salem.

Rev. Harold Deitch officiated at the double ring ceremony, with Ruth Berry of Salem as organist.

Mr. Winter escorted his daughter to the altar, which was decorated with two candelabras and baskets of white mums and white gladioli. Miss Winter was attired in a street-length sheath of white brocade with a matching short jacket, and a white satin Dior bow with a short veil. White roses and pompons formed her bouquet.

Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Judith Ann Combs of Akron. She appeared in a blue satin street-length dress and a matching blue feather hat. Her flowers were yellow roses and white carnations.

Sheridan Lee Combs of Akron was the best man, and James Keefer, Mrs. Fred Snyder, Mrs. Earland Crum and Miss Royle were usher.

The bride is a graduate of Akron Buchtel High School and was employed by Appliance Buyers Credit Corp. in Akron. A graduate of Salem High School, the bridegroom is employed as an apprentice plastic pattern maker by Tooling Aides Inc.

The couple's honeymoon destination was Washington, D.C. For traveling, Mrs. Herold wore a beige and brown silk dress with a beige coat. They are now residing at 637½ N. Lincoln Ave.

St. Jacob's Church of Christ Plans 150th Anniversary During October

St. Jacob's United Church of Christ, one of the oldest churches in Columbiana County, will celebrate its 150th anniversary during the month of October.

On Sunday Rev. A. A. Kosower, pastor of the church, will administer the holy communion in German. The church was founded by people of German descent and named after Jacob Burger who was an active church worker.

The land for the first building was purchased Dec. 9, 1811. In 1927 a new church and church school addition and tower were added to the structure. Another addition was constructed in 1955 and an attractive parsonage was built in 1959.

Pastors of St. Jacob's Church during the past 60 years were the first brick church was built in 1825 and the second in 1866. $1,073 Netted In Harvest Festival, Beaver Club Told ROGERS — Proceeds from the recent Tri-State Harvest Festival netted $1,073, according to a report made at the Tuesday evening meeting of the Beaver Local Booster Club held at the Beaver High School.

George Gayots, chairman of the festival, reported a total attendance of approximately 2,500 for the two-day event. He was assisted by the trustees of the club, Glenn Hawkins, Gail Williams, Ernest Gonter, George Wilkinson, George Dunn and Michael Klembara.

Mrs. Charles Smith was in charge of the refreshment stand and reported a net profit of $116. She also told that 120 free lunches were served to the football players.

Dr. George VanHorn, executive head, announced that there will be a football game tonight at 7 between the junior high of Beaver Public School and St. Alloysius Catholic School of East Liverpool at the Beaver Local field.

A wrestling bout and the three-sport banquet were announced as coming events.

The next meeting will be Oct. 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Defendants

William B. Moore, defense attorney, has questioned the right of Ohio Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy to enter the case and has asked for a written bill of particulars on charges against his clients before they enter a plea.

McElroy led a raid against the firm Sept. 6 and called the Lisbon plant the third largest supplier of numbers slips in the nation. Company officials contended they were operating a legitimate business of printing sales slips for grocery and other stores.

If convicted, the four face a maximum penalty of three years in prison and a $1,000 fine under the new law, which makes the offense a felony.

U.N.

Speech contained little new, although there were some signs of giving ground. Neutrals felt encouraged by what they viewed as a moderate tone.

Gromyko ignored the new U.S. step-by-step disarmament program but produced all the standard Soviet objections to its main premise—that disarmament must be inspected, verified and controlled. He said such control would only benefit Western military leaders and serve as espionage for them.

Not only did Gromyko reject Kennedy's appeal for an immediate nuclear test ban treaty—he wants the question lumped with all disarmament problems—but he defended the Soviet resumption of tests.

"The Soviet Union is compelled to do this by the actions of the NATO powers," Gromyko said.

Gromyko touched only briefly on the question of filling the vacuum caused by Hammarskjöld's death. He demanded that the Security Council—where the Soviets can veto any candidate—take up the problem first and solve it "on the basis corresponding to the actual situation in the world."

This is the Soviet phrase meaning a three-man board of Communist, neutral and Western representatives, each with a veto.

Several hours later the Soviets came up with a slight shift from Premier Khrushchev's original "troika" proposal. They suggested appointing one top official for the U.N. secretariat with three deputies. They would have to agree on all decisions, thus giving each a veto. The top official would be only a figurehead.

Meetings Scheduled For County Groups

The first of three meetings of County Home Demonstration Groups will be held Thursday at the Winona Methodist Church from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m., according to Miss Julia Shanks, county extension agent in home economics.

Smooth surface floor coverings will be the topic for the first lesson.

Butler, Knox, Perry and Salem Townships will meet Thursdays. Miss Shanks said.

Hanover, Wayne, Center and Franklin Townships will meet Friday from 10:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Valley Grange hall, just south of the Bethesda Church off Rt. 64.

Fairfield, Unity and Elkhorn Townships will meet Monday at the same time at the New Waterford School.

All attending are asked to bring a sack lunch and cup. Beverage will be furnished.

Meeting of Beaver PTO Held Monday

ELKTON — Beaver Local Public School P.T.O. met Monday evening at the school, with President Clayton Aghinbaugh presiding. Rev. Homer Clyde of the Calcutta Presbyterian Church led devotions.

Hospitality Chairman Carl Mansfield led group singing, followed by the committee reports. Principal Roy Cashdollar introduced teachers and discussed the proposed bond issue.

Mr. Mansfield made a motion for the organization to award a yearly scholarship, with an undetermined amount of money, to be given to a student who would need help to attend college to become a teacher. The motion was approved.

Mrs. Carol Walton, music supervisor, requested purchase of semi-classical records for her classes, which was approved. Cynthia Smith, an eighth grade student, gave several piano selections.

A bake sale by the mothers was offered in the lobby, preceding the meeting.

Mayor Ernest Phillips presided at the Council meeting.

Bills totaling $883.99 were approved.

Congress Will Begin Thursday

LISBON — The fifth annual fall festival of the Lion's Club will be held on the square Thursday, Friday and Saturday, with a matinee for children set for Saturday afternoon.

A concert by the Lisbon High School Band under the direction of Theodore Greener will open the session Thursday evening, and a parade will be held Saturday evening.

A highway bill authorizing an additional $11.5 billion to complete the 41,000-mile interstate system by 1972 as originally scheduled.

Two new organizations urged by the President, a Peace Corps and a disarmament agency, were enacted into law in the closing days of the session.

The chief casualties in Kennedy's program were:

A $2.55-billion aid bill for public grade and high schools. Passed the Senate but killed in the House. A religious dispute over whether church schools should get aid was a major factor in this defeat.

Three other education bills — aid for colleges, aid for medical education, and a broadening of the National Defense Education Act. Democratic leaders believe all three have a chance in 1962.

A broad tax revision program containing incentives to business modernization and removing various benefits now in present law. Some action likely next year.

A health care program for the 16 million persons over 65 handled largely under the Social Security System. The House Ways and Means Committee has completed hearings on this; action is possible in 1962.

A far-reaching new farm production authorization bill for agriculture and subject to a congressional veto. Congress put through a measure limited to wheat and other grains, seeking to win production cuts by an offer of higher support prices.

A postal rate increase boosting the letter stamp from 4 to 5 cents and raising other rates.

Establishment of a Cabinet department of urban affairs.

Many volunteer workers gave freely of their time at the blood banks. During the past year, doctors donated 42 hours of time; registered nurses, 298 hours; volunteer nurses aides, 370 hours; canteen workers, 258 hours; staff aides, 818 hours; blood program chairman, 266 hours; and donor recruiters, 756 hours.

Blood Program Stressed

The North Columbian County Chapter of the American Red Cross entered the blood program March 3, 1955. The chapter's pro-rated share of the cost for the fiscal year, July 1, 1960, through June 30, 1961, was $4,565.55.

The bloodmobile visited this area 12 times during the fiscal year with a collection of 1,484 pints. Of this total, 1,321 pints were distributed to Salem's two hospitals for patients in those hospitals.

Another 229 pints were authorized for residents who were under this chapter's jurisdiction but hospitalized in other cities and states.

The North Columbian County Chapter used 69 more pints of blood than were collected in its territory.

Some of the many other services provided by the Red Cross include work with servicemen and veterans such as assisting with leave; assisting with claims and other benefits; counseling in family problems; providing canteen service; acting as aid to travelers, upon request; and assisting in finding donors for open heart surgery cases.

Everything seemed to point toward a campaign by the 1960 Republican presidential nominee to dump Democratic Gov. Edmund G. Brown.

There was the careful staging of the announcement, the steady buildup of a "draft Nixon" clamor within the state GOP, little hints here and there.

But, just as easily, puzzled guessers could make out a sound case for decision by Nixon, 48, not to chance his political future with state voters who are better than 3-2 Democratic.

Republicans themselves are divided on Nixon's course. Some have told him that he needs the gubernatorial to build a platform for another national race in 1968.

Others have argued that Nixon, with his national party stature, doesn't need an office to keep in the public eye. They have warned, too, that he faces a stubborn battle for the state nomination, particularly from former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight.

Talk about Nixon's possible candidacy for governor began right after he lost the presidency. It came into the open in February when Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., declared Nixon must win the state post if he expected to run again for president in 1968.

The former vice president told friends in March that he was not a candidate and he had no intention to be one. By July he was saying he would run "only if the party concludes I am the only man who can 'save' the state."

State Republican leaders, confident they had a winner, have implored Nixon for months to get into the race. A poll of Republican State Central Committee members showed he was the choice of 687 of the 972 who replied.

Cincinnati Clinches First Pennant In Twenty-One Years

Aided By Pirates' 8-0 Win Over LA

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

"Reds si, Yankees no."

That was the main theme as the long-frustrated Cincinnati citizenry celebrated the Reds' first National League pennant in 21 years with a rash of superlatives for their heroes and a deep bow in the direction of Pittsburgh pitcher Joe Gibbon.

The Reds beat the Chicago Cubs 6-3 in a day game Tuesday evening, a tie for the NL flag, then had to wait for Gibbon to get the actual clinching job done by eliminating the second-place Los Angeles Dodgers with a one-hitter. That victory, an 8-0 shutout aff-

Bell Hurls Indians to 7-3 Victory

MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Against the background of the mystery of who is going to be the Cleveland Indians next manager, Gary Bell pitched the Tribe to a 7-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins Tuesday. General Manager Gabe Paul has said he will make his managerial choice known in Los Angeles this weekend. Cleveland first base coach Mel McGaha is said to have the inside track, but he confounded the prophets by saying nobody has asked him if he wants the job. Manager Jimmie Dykes says he's sure McGaha will be named.

Bell lost a shutout in the eighth inning when Zorlo Versalles homered with two on. Bell (12-15) contributed three singles and drove in a run. The righthander gave up 10 hits, but stranded the same number of runners.

The Indians got a run in the first on Jim Piersall's walk and singles by Chuck Essegian and John Romano.

In the second, singles by Woodie Held, Mike de la Hoz and Bell produced the one run, and a second scored when centerfielder Lenny Green dropped Piersall's short fly with the bases loaded.

Cleveland increased its lead to 4-0 in the seventh. Singles by Willie Kirkland and Romano and a walk to Vic Power filled the bases. Held then singled to score Kirkland.

The Tribe gained a 7-0 edge with three runs in the eighth. Bell singled and Ken Aspromonte walked. Tito Francona drove Bell in with a double. Kirkland was walked intentionally, loading the bases. On a double play ball hit to second baseman Billy Martin by Romano, Kirkland slid hard into Martin, who threw wild to first after making the force play. Aspromonte and Francona scored on the error.

Jim Perry (10-16) was the mound choice today for the Indians against the Twins' Al Schroll (3-3).

er the Dodgers had remained in contention with a 5-3 victory in the first game of a two-night doubleheader, sent the Red to the World Series against the American League champion New York Yankees.

Brosnan Gets Win

To ace reliever Jim Brosnan (10-3) went the honor of mailing down Cincinnati's long-awaited pennant. Brosnan set the Cubs down on one hit over the final three innings. Jerry Lynch provided the winning runs with a two-run homer in the eighth that snapped a 3-3 tie.

The Reds' long day started in the first inning when Chicago scored against starter Bob Purkey on Don Zimmer's single, a passed ball and George Altman's double. The Cubs added two in the fifth when the Reds defense collapsed following a two-out single by Cub starter Bob Anderson.

Richie Ashburn's roller went for a hit when second baseman Don Blasingame failed to rush in, and Don Zimmer was credited with a hit when Gene Freese allowed his tap down third to roll and the ball stayed fair.

Kasko Throws Wild

Ernie Banks then bounded to shortstop Eddie Kasko but his throw to Blasingame for a force-out was wide. Anderson scored and the bases remained loaded. Altman's walk forced in the other run before the side was retired.

The Reds battled back. Held to one hit over five innings, they scored their first run in the fifth on leadoff homer by John Edwards and put it away when Frank Robinson hit a two-run homer in the seventh off Anderson (7-10) and Lynch connected in the eighth.

At Pittsburgh, the Dodgers hung on by winning the opener behind Stan Williams (14-12) with a five-run second inning outburst against Bob Friend (14-19). Jim Gilliam's bases-loaded triple was the key blow.

That was the Dodgers last chance. Gibbon completely subdued them in the nightcap, allowing only a leadoff sixth inning pinch-hitter single by Bob Aspinwall.

The Pirates won it in the third, chasing Don Drysdale (12-10) with a five-run surge after two were out.

In the only other NL game, Milwaukee beat St. Louis 9-2. Joe Adcock's three-run homer in the first inning off Ray Sadecki (14-10) gave Lew Burdette (18-10) a cushion he never relinquished.

Maris Pleased But Wants 'One More'

NEW YORK (AP)—Roger Maris hit the home run he wanted most Tuesday night—his 60th of the season. Now he wants one even more—home run No. 61.

"I was beginning to wonder whether I'd ever get it," he said today referring to the historic four-bagger he walloped in the third inning off Jack Fisher, Baltimore right-hander.

"Now that I've got it, I'd like to get one more, just one more." He has four games in which to do it.

Words weren't coming easily to the New York Yankee slugger who, normally is a shy, almost reticent introvert. He was fully aware that he had equalled Babe Ruth's fantastic 60 in a season and it embarrassed him when he was introduced to Mrs. Ruth, the immortal Babe's wife, immediately after the game.

"I'm glad I didn't break Babe Ruth's record in 154 games," he told her shyly. "This record is enough for me."

College Football Picks

NEW YORK (AP)—The college football toughies swing into action this weekend with the result that predicting becomes tougher, too. Last week there were 30 correct ones among the 38 games that reached a decision for an average of .79.

Iowa over California: The Hawkeye quarterback, Wilburn Hollis, can call on too many guns.

Notre Dame over Oklahoma: Neither is up to its par of several years ago, as the TV viewers will discover, but the Irish have more experience in the backfield.

Mississippi over Kentucky: That speedy Mississippi line will be too much for Kentucky's youngsters.

Ohio State over Texas Christian: TCU upset Kansas last weekend and Coach Woody Hayes of Ohio State got the message. He's got All-America fullback Bob Ferguson primed.

Michigan over UCLA: Michigan's first team rates with any in the Big Ten.

Alabama over Tulane: You can't win if you can't score—and that Alabama defense is rugged.

Syracuse over West Virginia: Syracuse has football players, West Virginia only has dreams of yester-year's greatness.

Michigan State over Wisconsin: Michigan State's slow but powerful attack will find holes in the Badgers' leaky defense.

Elsewhere: Baylor over Pittsburgh; Penn State over Miami; Texas over Texas Tech; Duke over Virginia; Georgia Tech over Rice; Washington over Illinois; Kansas over Wyoming.

Detroit over Xavier, Colorado over Oklahoma State, Minnesota over Missouri, Nebraska over Arizona, Northwestern over Boston College, Wichita over Cincinnati.

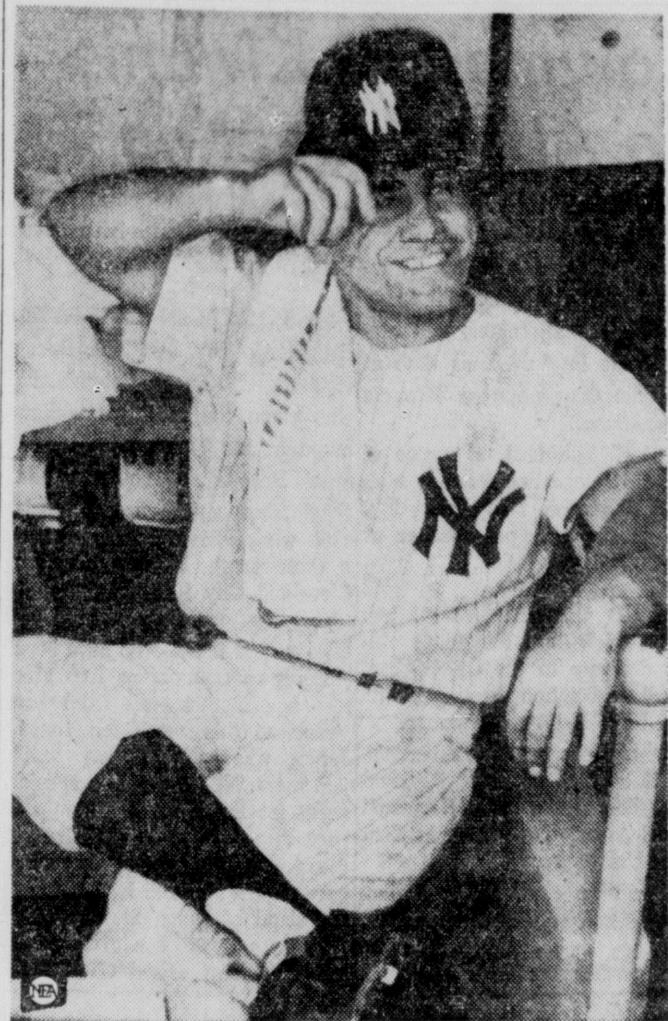

1—Beauty, Grace

By SHARON KAY RITCHIE
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Bowling clothes should be comfortable, but that's no reason a woman setting out for a lark on the lanes shouldn't look every bit as attractive as she would going to a party.

Bowling is a beauty-building sport and it is not a bad idea for a woman to start out wearing the most eye-catching clothes she can find that are adapted to the sport. Let her start out with gorgeous clothes and catch up physically with her fine feathers.

Bowling is a fun sport, so why shouldn't clothing be colorful, lively and gay? Just about any color is right as long as it fits the wearer's complexion and color-

MAN OF MEANS — Yogi Berra doffed his cap in the dugout recently, jubilant over the fact the New York Yankees' 11th pennant in 13 years will afford him an opportunity to add to his World Series records for the 12th time.

Maris, Reds Accomplish Season Goals

By The Associated Press

Roger Maris, 27-year-old New York Yankee outfielder, and the Cincinnati Reds, a pennant-starved team for 21 years, both have realized their season goals

—Maris a little late and the Reds in plenty of time.

Maris blasted his 60th home run Tuesday night to equal Babe Ruth's record output of 1927. It will go down in the books as a separate record by order of Base Ball Commissioner Ford Frick because Maris wasn't able to do it in 154 games.

This season, the American League schedule was lengthened to 162 games and Frick ruled that Maris' efforts—even if he hits more homers in the final four games—will be listed in a separate category from Ruth's.

The Reds, who finished sixth last year and were not rated any better than fifth by the experts this season, won the National League pennant with a big assist from the Pittsburgh Pirates.

The Reds defeated the Chicago Cubs Tuesday, 6-3, in Chicago, then headed back for Cincinnati to await the results of the Los Angeles-Pittsburgh two-night doubleheader in Pittsburgh.

The Dodgers, the only team that had a mathematical chance of catching the Reds, won the first game, 5-3. The Pirates, who had won the pennant and defeated the New York Yankees in the World Series last year, won the second game, 8-0.

So the Reds will meet the Yankees, who clinched the American League pennant a week ago, in the World Series starting in New York Oct. 4.

BOWLING IS A FUN sport, so why not wear gay clothing?

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

By RUFUS LIDE

From what I have learned from a few sources of information, squirrel hunting is way down in many parts of the state. However, upon checking with some of the largest license agencies in the county I find that sales in most instances are normal while one agency reports an increase in the sale of hunting licenses.

Compete with animals. I had a call just recently from a turkey farmer that was losing a lot of turkeys to raccoons. It would be too expensive to provide a vermin proof fence over the number of acres he owns. He has the right to use any physical resistance he chooses to stop the onslaught.

In my opinion, the main reason for lack of interest in squirrel hunting is the unusually warm, dry weather we have experienced since the season opened. Many hunters have said to me, "Who wants to hunt squirrels in the summer time?"

Keep in mind, this is unusual weather for September and the season in zone one runs until Nov. 11th although zone two ends Oct. 28. Zone one is all lands in Columbiana County that lie south of Route 30 while Zone 2 is all lands north of Route 30. There is no reason to believe we will not get better hunting weather later on in the season.

Most animal nuisances can be corrected by a little individual effort. Beavers, along with deer, put in their appearances within the past three decades. There has been a shooting season on deer and now we had our first trapping season on beavers last January with another coming up in 1962. The Ohio Division of Wildlife life did not stock either of these animals.

Walk through the pastures right now and observe the millions of grasshoppers and crickets. City dwellers can take a look at the Japanese beetles in their flower gardens. Fortunately, this is not game or the Ohio Division of Wildlife would be requested to get rid of these pests.

AT LAST TO KISS AMANDA by Frank Norris. Jay Candless thought of himself as a very kindly man, but he at last finds out that everyone who has been a recipient of his kindness has resented it. So much so that they wonder if he was not the real cause of the suicide of one of his best friends.

THE OFF-ISLANDERS by Nathaniel Benchley. A Soviet submarine runs aground off Cape Cod—and the natives treat the Russians with the same suspicion and dislike that they do the summer visitors.

DIVE IN THE SUN by Douglas Reeman. A midget submarine is sent to destroy a floating dock on the Italian coast. We follow the four-man crew through one hazardous adventure after another until the rendezvous is accomplished.

SLAVE AND MASTER by Jacques Perdue. The story of Spartacus and the rebellion of slaves against Rome. The times were indeed cruel, and the author leaves none of the cruelty to the imagination.

I AM ANTHONY by Peg Stokes. Tony was sure he had gotten into Heaven by mistake, but he was assured that such was not the case. However his guilt feelings were so persistent that he was given a difficult assignment on Earth as his penance, and was told that he must solve it wisely.

THE PATH by Miguel Delibes. Daniel is eleven and must leave his Spanish village to go to boarding school. He realizes now how much his home means to him and the book tells of his memories.

MILA 18 by Leon Uris. The story of the Warsaw Ghetto fighting during World War II is here re-told in the form of a novel. It is a novel powerful enough to be worthy of its theme.

STRANGER IN A STRANGE LAND by Robert A. Heinlein. An extremely clever and biting satire on our mode of life. Although it has some of the aspects of science fiction, it is much, much more than that. At times it is very funny, but always well thought out.

A TALENT FOR LOVING by Richard Condon. Major Patten builds a huge ranch in Texas, marries, has a daughter—and every man for miles around wants to marry her. So he invents a series of contests for the two most likely prospects, the winner to get the girl.

GOODBYE, JIMMY, GOODBYE by Kate Christie. Clara, an unsophisticated young woman living in the Lake District in England, falls in love with the son of the only local titled resident. He has actually come home to drink himself to death, so she has much to learn about sorrow. Enjoyable just the same.

Mysteries:

EVIL GENIUS by George Bagby. Even if he was a thoroughly evil young man, some one had to find out who killed him.

BODIES AND SOULS edited by Herr and Wells. Fourteen excerpts from stories by the best writers of murder and mystery stories.

THE DOUBLE FRAME by Anthony Morton. Any man who takes the law into his own hands has two groups of enemies—the police and the crooks.

NON-FICTION

THE FUTURE METROPOLIS by Lloyd Rodwin. Trends in city growth, implications which can be drawn from what has already happened; what can be done to make the process less painful.

A NATION OF SHEEP by William J. Lederer. An analysis of what is wrong in our foreign relations, also in other areas of government, and what we can do about it.

INTERNATIONAL LAW IN AN EXPANDED WORLD by Dr. B. V.A. Roling. A Dutch professor of law raises questions about the adequacy of our present body of International Law.

A HISTORY OF THE U.S. SIGNAL CORPS by the editors of The Army Times. This year marks the one hundredth anniversary of the founding of the Signal Corps. This history is readable and well illustrated.

TA LKING YOUR WAY AROUND THE WORLD by Maria Pei. A language expert gives you the basic rules and some samples of many languages of the world.

APPRaising AND SELLING YOUR COINS by Robert Friedberg. A useful and up-to-date guide for coin collectors.

EXPLORING MATHEMATICS ON YOUR OWN by Wm. H. Glenn and Donovan A. Johnson. A truly exciting book for the person to whom mathematics appeals. Has a generous-sized chapter on mathematical puzzles.

1961 AEROSPACE YEARBOOK by A. Lawrence Kocher and Howard Dearstine. The story of the aircraft of many types in use today, something about the companies and the men who are responsible for developing and testing them.

SECRETS OF SELLING YOURSELF TO PEOPLE by James T. Mangan. A "how-to" book for developing a more dynamic personality, and building a successful life.

INTRODUCING FOR 1962 THE NEW LEAN BREED OF DODGE

The black car above is the 1962 Dodge Dart 440. First of the Action-Economy cars. A low price, full-size Dodge that will outrun, out-economize most any car around. Accelerates seven percent faster on five percent less gas than a comparable '61 model. Reason? Less dead weight. For instance, its automatic transmission (with V8 engine) has an aluminum case, weighs 60 pounds less than last year's. The '62 Dart 440 is more comfortable. Has chair-high seats, a fold-down center armrest in front for bucket seat comfort.

The white car above is the Lancer GT, America's first Sports Compact. It carries five. Corners flat. Handles neat. Really goes. Bucket seats, all-vinyl interior, full carpeting are standard.

Full-size or compact, every 1962 Dodge is rust-proofed. Has a smooth Torsion-Aire Ride. Goes 32,000 miles between grease jobs. As always, the name Dodge is your assurance of complete dependability.

Job's Daughters met Monday night at the Masonic Temple, with Miss Gloria Dell Tritton, honored queen, presiding.

Plans were made to attend the Job's Daughters inspection at Youngstown Oct. 7 and it was decided to again hold a formal dance at Christmas time. The next meeting will be Oct. 9.

Mrs. Florence Stacey was hostess to associates of the Victory Club at her home on N. Jefferson St. Monday night.

Five hundred was played and Mrs. Marion Figley and Mrs.

John Chilik won prizes. The hostess served lunch.

Miss Victor Williams of S. Lincoln Ave. will entertain the club Oct. 9.

PAST TEMPLARS CLUB met Monday night with Miss Bertha Webber at her home on Sherman St.

Mrs. Leonna McDevitt, president, conducted the business session and a social time of travelers bingo followed. Mrs. Hazel Ells received the prize. Lunch was served.

Mrs. McDevitt of Thomas Rd. will entertain Oct. 23.

Mrs. George Moser, president, presided over a business session when the Past Noble Grands club of the Rebekah Lodge was received Monday night by Miss Dora Lones of W. Washington St.

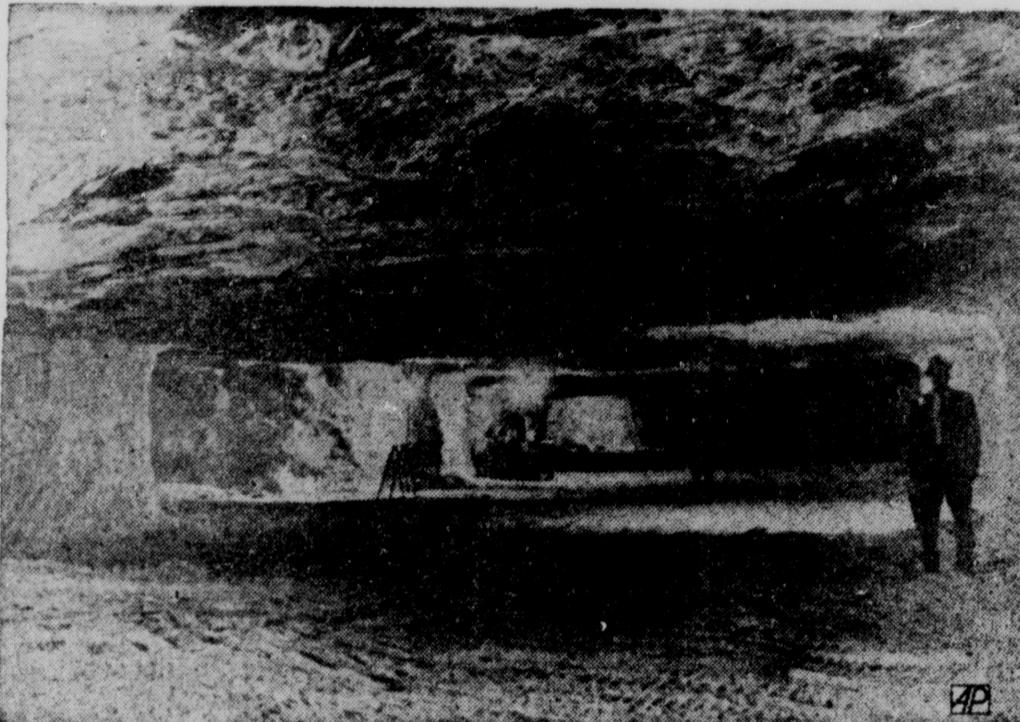

A social time of games and lunch followed the meeting. Oct. 23 is the date of the next meeting. Rick Bowling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bowling of E. Lincoln Way, has entered Kent State University for his freshman year. He will major in arts and sciences.

Robert Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baker of E. Chestnut St., has received notice that his Army Reserve unit has been called to active duty. He is spending this week with his parents here.

Mr. Baker has resided in Chattanooga, Tenn., since his graduation from college and for more than three years has been employed by the Provident Insurance Co. there. He was also on the faculty of the University of Chattanooga.

He will return to Chattanooga where he will be stationed beginning Oct. 1 until FFt. Rucker, Ala., is prepared to receive the unit.

Miss Nelle Eyster of W. Pine St. was honored Sunday on her birthday when Mr. and Mrs. Glen Juhy, Mrs. Isabelle Gervey, Mrs. Hazel Olsen, Thomas School of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. James Gerrard, Rev. and Mrs. Frank SAFE, SECURE AND SALTY — This is a view of a huge cavern carved 650 feet underground near Hutchinson, Kan., by salt mining. The area includes 125 rooms, each 50 by 300 feet, separated by 10-foot walls of solid salt. The area is being leased for record storage and emergency space as a nuclear bomb shelter.

Coulson and son George of North Canton gathered at her home. Hare, Rev. and Mrs. A. A. Kossowar, Rev. and Mrs. Long and Evangelist Don Isenberg, guest of the Longs.

Mrs. Francis Crear of Cleveland, who had visited with her the past week, returned to her home.

Miss Gladys Loudon of W. Washington St., Mrs. Mary Scharff, Mrs. Lawrence Copeland and Mrs. Norma Ketchum of Millport were among those returning home Sunday night from a week's tour through the Smokey mountains.

MEMBERS OF THE LISBON Ministerial Assn. and their wives held a luncheon Tuesday noon at Hotel Wick to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Russell Long into their midst. Rev. Long is the new pastor of the Church of the Nazarene.

Rev. William Brown, president, presided.

Attending were Rev. and Mrs. C. O. Armstrong, Rev. and Mrs. Hazel Olsen, Thomas School of Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. James Gerrard, Rev. and Mrs. Frank

Interviews with 73,436 Homemakers* Told Us Why

MOST WOMEN WANT GAS RANGES

WHAT WOMEN SAID

1. GAS IS FASTER

"I don't have to wait for burners to heat up when I'm in a rush to get breakfast."

2. GAS GIVES BETTER RESULTS

"Flame broiling seems to bring out more flavor, whether it's indoors or out on the grill."

3. GAS IS MORE CONTROLLABLE

"I can turn down the flame while I look at the cookbook, and nothing burns."

4. GAS COOKING IS EASIER

"I find it easier to judge the degree of heat when I can see the size of the flame."

5. GAS IS MORE ECONOMICAL

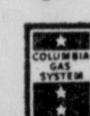

"I do so much baking and cooking, it wouldn't make sense to use anything but gas."

6. GAS IS MORE DEPENDABLE

"It's nice to know that I'll always be able to cook a hot meal for my family on my gas range... even when it storms."

will fill out the main course nicely.

1 lb. ground lamb, 1 tablespoon dried parsley flakes, or ¼ cup chopped fresh parsley, 1 teaspoon salt few grains pepper, few grains thyme, ¼ cup fine dry bread crumbs, 2-3 cup evaporated milk, 4 cups thinly sliced raw potatoes (about 4 to 5 medium), 2 cups thinly sliced onions, (about 3 medium), 1 can (No. 2) tomato juice (1 pt. 2 oz.), 2 teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen peas.

In a medium size mixing bowl mix together thoroughly the lamb, parsley, the 1 teaspoon of salt, the few grains pepper and thyme, crumbs and evaporated milk.

Shape meat mixture into six rectangular loaves and place side by side in the center of a 13½ x 8½ x 1 3/4-inch baking dish. Arrange potatoes on both sides of loaves, then top potatoes with onions.

Pour tomato juice over potatoes and onions, but not over loaves. Sprinkle with the 2 teaspoons salt and ¼ teaspoon pepper. Bake in preheated hot oven (450 deg. F.) for 20 minutes.

Cover dish tightly with aluminum foil; then reduce temperature to 350 deg. F. and bake 15 minutes longer.

Remove cover and sprinkle peas over top. Cover and bake 10 minutes longer. Makes 6 servings.

Fit the pastry into the pie plate and trim the overhang even with the plate's edge; now use the trimmings for the shapes.

Cut out crescents with a small crescent-shaped cutter from a canape-cutter set; press the crescents onto the slightly moistened pie-shell rim so they barely touch.

For coins, cut out 3/4 inch rounds, using the center of a doughnut cutter or a thimble. Overlap the rounds on the slightly moistened pie-shell rim, pressing down lightly.

Prick shell with fork. Bake in 425 or 450 degrees oven for 10 to 12 minutes or until lightly browned. Cool and add Fruit Flummery filling.

Fruit Flummery Pie

Desserts named Flummery were popular in the 1890's and one of these was made with sweetened and flavored gelatin mixed with beaten egg whites and lots of cream. This 1961 recipe bears weight-watchers in mind, so it calls for lots of fruit and a minimum of cream. Our family tasted it after a spicy main course and judged it "refreshing."

Fruit Flummery Pie

2 cups thinly sliced fresh pared peaches, 3/4 cup sugar, 1 envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1-3 cup very hot water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, salt, 2 egg whites, 1/2 cup heavy cream, Fancy Pie Shell.

Sprinkle fruit with sugar and allow to stand 30 minutes. Soften gelatin in cold water; add very hot water and stir until dissolved; cool.

Mix sugared fruit, dissolved gelatin, lemon juice and a dash of salt. Chill until partly set. Whip egg whites until stiff; whip cream until stiff. Fold beaten egg whites, then beaten cream, into fruit-gelatin mixture.

Turn into baked Fancy Pie Shell. Chill until filling is set; before serving garnish with extra fruit.

Fancy Pie Shell

1 cup sifted enriched flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup shortening, 2 to 4 tablespoons cold water.

Sift together the flour

A Word From . . .

HERON'S OLD COUNTRY STORE

Columbiana-Lisbon Road

In the U.S.A. and Canada there are over 5000 independently owned I.G.A. stores, big and small. In our group there is 120 stores with our being 10th from the top in business. With a continuous support of you, our regular customers, and a few new ones we can move to the number 6 spot. We are going to do our best to earn this spot.

Questions—Answers

Q—Why is Capt. John Quincy Marr generally honored throughout the South?

A—He was the first Confederate officer killed in the Civil War.

Q—What contribution to the knowledge of ancient history was made by Manetho, the Egyptian historian?

A—He divided the names of the Pharaohs into dynasties and while his list is not accurate, it is still used by many historians.

Rusk, Gromyko Meet Again Today

Possibility of U.N. Role In Berlin Crisis Grows

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The possibility that the United Nations will play some role in efforts to settle the Berlin crisis appeared to be gaining headway today.

If negotiations can be agreed on, both the Soviet Union and the Allied powers may propose that the United Nations take a hand in carrying out any plan they can devise for the future of West Berlin. Indications are that Soviet and Western leaders alike are thinking along these lines:

Secretary of State Dean Rusk and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko scheduled another meeting today on the East-West deadlock over how to get negotiations started.

The central issue is what to negotiate about.

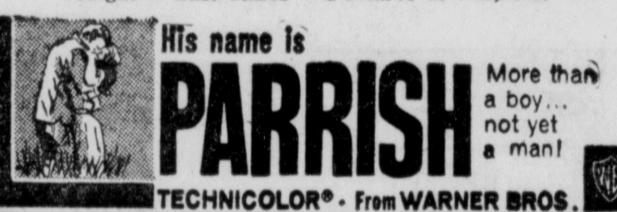

More cool air from Canada poured across the Northern Rockies and Northern Plains during the night, dropping temperatures into the 20s in parts of Montana. Readings in the 40s extended southward into Nebraska.

Showers sprinkled scattered sections in the chilly air from Montana and Wyoming to Northern Wisconsin, with thunderstorms in areas where the warm and cold air clashed.

Snows cleared in the Northeast and cooler air spread across most sections. Readings in the 30s were reported in Western New York and Pennsylvania, some 25 degrees lower than Tuesday morning. Skies were mostly cloudy from the Middle Atlantic Coast to Eastern Kentucky and Tennessee while thundershows persisted in North Carolina during the night.

Fair weather was reported in most other parts of the country.

and derogatory letters to the court and other officials, berating the court, and delaying a pending case.

Judge Kelly said the letter writing apparently stemmed from Downey's divorce 10 years ago and the subsequent sale of the Downey property to satisfy a property partition.

Notice of Election on Tax Levy in Excess of the Ten Mill Limitation NOTICE is hereby given that in pursuance of a Resolution of the Council of Washingtonville Village, Columbian County, Ohio, passed on the 17th day of July, 1961, there will be submitted to a vote of the people of said Washingtonville Village at a GENERAL ELECTION to be held in Washingtonville Village, Columbian County, Ohio, at the regular place of voting therein, on Tuesday, the 7th day of November, 1961, the question of levying a tax in excess of the ten mill limitation, for the benefit of Washingtonville Village for the purpose of providing an adequate amount for current operating expenses of said village, respectively rejected.

President Kennedy, speaking Monday, had already recognized a major U.N. interest in the Berlin crisis by devoting a long section of his address to it. In addition the United States, Britain, France, and West Germany are known to have discussed possible participation of the United Nations, either in dealing with the crisis or in carrying out a settlement.

The roles the organization might undertake would have to be determined in the proposed negotiations on a settlement. Failing a settlement, U.S. officials believe the unresolved crisis would go into the United Nations, perhaps to the initiative of the Western powers.

Said tax being an additional tax of two (2) mills to run for five (5) years at a rate not exceeding two (2) mills for each one dollar of valuation, which amounts to Twenty cents ($0.20) for each one hundred dollars of valuation, for a period of Five (5) years, including a levy upon the tax duplicate of the current year.

The Polls for said Election will be open at 6:30 o'clock A. M. and remain open until 6:30 o'clock P. M. Eastern Standard Time of said day.

By order of the Board of Elections, of Columbian County, Ohio.
